

Call for papers on
“INTERNATIONALIZATION OF DOCTORAL EDUCATION” for

“Internationalization of Higher Education - Developments in the European Higher Education Area and Worldwide”

The International Association of Universities acts as the chair of the editorial team for the publication “Internationalization of Higher Education - Developments in the European Higher Education Area and Worldwide”, by DUZ Academic Publishers.

The publication is aimed at practitioners and decision-makers in higher education.

Published four times per year, “Internationalization of Higher Education - Developments in the European Higher Education Area and Worldwide” examines internationalisation processes in countries all over the world, with a special focus on the developments in Europe resulting from the Bologna Process.

More detailed information is available on the publication website:

www.handbook-internationalisation.com

The editorial board includes the following experts in the field:

- Madeleine Green, Senior Fellow at the IAU and NAFSA;
- Liviu Matei, Provost and Pro-Rector at the Central European University in Budapest;
- Terhi Nokkala, Senior Researcher at the Finnish Institute for Educational Research (FIER);
- Eva Egron-Polak, former IAU Secretary General, IAU Senior Fellow;
- Lewis Purser, Director of Academic Affairs, Irish Universities Association.

Each issue focuses on a theme; the theme of the latest issue of 2019 (4/2019) is:

“Internationalization of doctoral education”

To contribute an article for this issue, please submit an abstract to the coordinator of the publication, Giorgio Marinoni at g.marinoni@iau-aiu.net by Sunday 24 February 2019.

Abstracts will be evaluated by the editorial board and selected authors will be invited to submit a full article.

The article can be written by a single or more authors and it should be practically oriented, it should raise interest internationally, should not exceed 5 000 words (30 000 characters including spaces).

The deadline to submit the full article is 30 May 2019.